PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING AN AD HOC TEACHING ASSISTANT

Please return your completed request to the Graduate School Office at least two weeks prior to the start of classes, if possible. You will be contacted shortly after your request is reviewed.

- Ad Hoc Assistance is typically provided for courses that enroll 50 students or more for which a suitable assistant can be found.
- The position pays $14 per hour up to $2500 so you and your assistant will need to plan your schedules carefully. This works out to be approximately 10-12 hours a week of assistance.
- Students will be paid bi-weekly.

If you have a student in mind for your course:

1. Fill out the Request for Ad Hoc Teaching Assistance form.
2. Have the student fill out the Ad Hoc Teaching Assistant Information form.
3. Submit both forms to the Dean of Graduate Studies and Research (Geography Building, Room 210).
4. You will notified if your request has been approved typically within 24 hours.
5. If this is the student's first time on Clark's payroll s/he must visit the payroll office to fill out payroll deduction forms.

If you do not have a particular student in mind:

1. Fill out the Request for Ad Hoc Teaching Assistance form and submit to the Dean of Graduate Studies and Research.
2. You will be notified if your request has been approved.
3. The request will be sent to departments most likely to have qualified students.
4. Interested students will submit the Application for Ad Hoc Teaching Assistantship form to the administrative assistant in their home department.
5. The department will review the applications and give the instructors contact information for up to 3 students.
6. Once you have decided on a student have the him/her fill out the Ad Hoc Teaching Assistant Information form and submit it to the Graduate School as soon as possible.
7. If this is the student's first time on Clark's payroll s/he must visit the payroll office to fill out payroll deduction forms.
