Clark University English Programs
Graduate and Undergraduate

Faculty News

- Professor Eric De Barros was invited by The Medieval and Renaissance Studies program at the College of the Holy Cross to present his paper on Shakespeare's "Titus Andronicus."

Read the whole entry

- English Department's Betsy Huang interviews science fiction author Ted Chiang, who wrote novella upon which the film "Arrival" is based.

Read the whole entry

- On a more wistful note, at Wassail, we bid a fond farewell to Vicki Stiefel, an accomplished writer of mystery novels and an excellent teacher in our popular Creative Writing program.

Read the whole entry

Undergraduate/Department News

- Our warmest congratulations to English majors Keane Gately and Xavier Pierre-Jerome who are graduating in December!

Read the whole entry

- On December 9, the English Department held our annual Wassail celebration with many of our majors, Master's students and friends. All enjoyed hot cider and sweets, while many decorated gingerbread men.

Read the whole entry
Read the whole entry and check out some photos

- Anderson House was alive with people on Thursday December 5 to celebrate Alain Grenier’s 33 years of service to Clark University.

Read the whole entry and check out some photos

Graduate News

- A special CONGRATULATIONS to our December graduates!

Read the whole entry

- During the 2016 African Literature Association conference in Atlanta, Georgia, Ama Bemma Adwetewa-Badu was elected as the vice-chair for the graduate student caucus.

Read the whole entry

- Jacqueline Schnieber was elected the Master’s Co-President of Clark’s Graduate Student Council for 2016-17.

Read the whole entry

Alumni News

- Jessica Thelen, M.A. 2016, is now an adjunct faculty member at Westfield State University.

Read the whole entry

- Genie Giamo, B.A. 2006 and M.A. 2007, has good news to report. She just published an article in "Literature and Medicine," related to her Ph.D. dissertation work.

Read the whole entry

- Congratulations to Olga Malinovskaya, M.A. 2003, who just graduated with a Ph.D. from Lincoln College, Oxford University.

Read the whole entry

More recent posts...