THE MONADNOCK

GUY H. BURNHAM AT CLARK FOR THIRTY YEARS

Guy H. Burnham was the guest of honor at a tea given by the faculty and CUGS on the second of May, commemorating his thirtieth year with the Graduate School of Geography. Present also were President Jefferson, Dean Little and other members of the University faculty. Mr. Burnham was presented with a pen set by the 1952 CUGS. A plaque on which was inscribed the affection of his faculty associates was presented by Dr. Van Valkenburg. Short speeches of appreciation were given by Everett Bush, president of CUGS, Dr. Van Valkenburg, Dean Little, and President Jefferson. In replying, Mr. Burnham was witty as always. He informed those present that actually he had first come to Clark as a student forty years ago. Ten years later, he was offered a temporary job for the summer at Clark. His tenure was successively extended until 1946 at which time the President made his position “more permanent.” Photographers and reporters were on hand and the papers of the following day carried the story.

Apparently unimpressed by his outstanding record, Guy Burnham goes on as before, keeping the Map Library in good order, announcing the daily “burning index,” and generally maintaining the cheerful spirit of the work room. We feel that all members of CUGS will want to join us in congratulating Mr. Burnham on the excellent service he has rendered to the many students and alumni of the Graduate School of Geography.

ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

Addison, Burton W. (Ph.D. ’42) Director, Reference Department, Library of Congress.

Allen, Agnes M. (Ph.D. ’37) Head, Science Department, Arizona State College, Flagstaff, Arizona. Executive Board Member of the Arizona State Education Association and Vice-President of the Arizona State Division of the American Association of University Women.

Anderson, Esther S. (Ph.D. ’32) Assistant Professor of Geography at the University of Nebraska. Revising “Regions and Nations of the World.” Recently elected to the Board of Directors, Lincoln Writers Guild; engaged in research on urban areas for forthcoming publication.

Baker, Hazel H. (M.A. ’41) Teaching Social Studies, Harvey High School, Plainsville, Ohio.

Bratlie, George (M.A. ’37) Ph.D. candidate in Geography at University of Maryland. Completed eight months’ land use survey in S. E. Puerto Rico in September 1951. "Aims and Limits in Teaching Cartography,” Professional Geographer, September 1951.

The MONADNOCK is regularly published twice a year, in December and May, by the Clark University Geographical Society, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Bosch, Hans (34-35) Chairman of Dept. of Geography, University of Zurich; Vice President, I.G.U. Published in 1951: "Economic Atlas of the World," and "Central America." Hopes to meet the CUG's group, students and alumni at the Washington Convention of the I.G.U. this summer.

Bollinger, C. J. (29) Associate Professor of Geography, University of Oklahoma. Currently engaged in research on climatic cycles.

Braun, Frederick K. (Ph.D. '33) Chairman, Dept. of Social Sciences, Chicago Teachers College, Chicago, III. Presently engaged on a series of social geographies.

Brooks, Charles F. (Staff 21-32) Professor of Meteorology and Director B.H.O., Harvard University. Continuing work in weather and sea temperature observation initiated while at Clark in '21. Publication of new edition of "International Atlas of Clouds and States of the Sky," Compiling Mt. Washington and Blue Hill Observatory climatic records in the interest of snowstorm prediction and daily weather forecasting. Prof. Brooks notes for the older alumni group particularly, "That the numerous Brooks children all grown up five are married, and that there are now eleven grandchildren."

Burke, Beatrice L. United States Armed Services.

Burrill, Meredith F. (Ph.D. '30) Director, Div. of Geography, Dept. of Interior; Executive Secretary, U. S. Board of Geographic Names; Executive Secretary, Pan American Consultation on Geography; Washington Convention in summer, 1952, Local Arrangements Committee, XVII I.G.U., Washington Convention, summer, 1952. Board of Managers, Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers. Chairman, Middle Atlantic Division, A.A.G. Geography Program Committee, A.A.A.S. December 1951 Convention, Philadelphia, Pa.

Burton, Dorothy E. (Ph.D. '49) Air Intelligence Specialist, Air Targets Division, Directorate of Intelligence, O.N.I., Washington, D. C. Calls attention to expanding importance of geographers in The Air Targets Division and CUG members newly engaged in professional capacities.

Cox, Katherine F. (M.A. '42) Lt., U. S. N. Instructor Officer, Address: Recruiting (W) Building 308, Bainbridge, Md.

Crawford, Clark N. (Ph.D. '51) Chairman, Dept. of Geography, University of Denver; Chief geographic consultant, Rio Sinu Valley Development, Colombia.

Cressey, George B. (Ph.D. '31) Maxwell Professor of Geography, Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y. After twenty years as Head of the Department of Geography at Syracuse, George B. Cressey has resigned the chairmanship and has been awarded the distinguished service title of Maxwell Professor of Geography. His responsibilities as President of the International Geographic Union took him to London and Paris earlier this year.

Creeley, Harold F. (Ph.D. '35) Instructor in Geography, Boston University, Mass.; working on article: "Patterns of Cultural Groups in Worcester."

Danklefsen, Mildred (M.A. '43) Instructor in Geography, Department of Geography and Geology, Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio; dissertation on "Recent Trends in the Sugar Industry of Jamaica" nearing completion. Pres., N. E. Division of Ohio Council of Geography Teachers, 31-52; Fellow, Ohio Academy of Science; papers: "Geographical Aspects of the Sugar Industry of Jamaica." Has been teaching geography over television.

Deacon, Mrs. Nadine A. H. (45)
Pres., Women Elector's Association of Toronto.

Dean, Frea Kathern (Ph.D. '49)
Head of Geography Department, State Teachers College, East Stroudsburg, Pa.; spent past summer in Sweden, Finland and Norway.

Deasy, George F. (Ph.D. '48)
Associate Professor of Geography, Division of Geography, Pennsylvania State College.

Ekblaw, Sidney E. (Ph.D. '34)
Professor of Geography and Geology, Missouri.

Engel Francis E. (49) Oceanographer, U. S. N. Hydrographic Office, Washington, D. C. Article: "Physical Types and Regional Pattern of the Marine Surface Waters of the Earth."

Fairchild, Wilma Belden (M.A. '37) Editor, Geographical Review; American Geographical Society, New York, N. Y. Visited Department of Geography at McGill University, Montreal, A.G.S. planning for its centennial.

Forysthe, Marion B. (M.A. '27)
Retired Teacher, Waddington, N. Y.

Foscar, Edwin J. (Ph.D. '31)
Chairman, Department of Geography, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas; Visiting Professor of Geography, Stanford University, summer '51; Chairman, Committee of Pan American Institute of Geography and History; Member, National Committee of U. S. International Geographical Union; Secretary, Faculty of College of Arts and Sciences of Southern Methodist University; revised Regional Geography of Anglo-America with C. C. Langdon White.

Freeman, W. Ph.D. '29)

Freeman, W. Ph.D. '29)

Grotewold, Andrae P. (M.A. '51)
Student, Heidelberg, Germany; preparing thesis on "Methods of American Economic Geography."

Greenbush, Archie (M.A., '43)
Hotel operator, Bancroft Hotel, Miami Beach, Fla.

Guridy, Ebara M. (M.A. '27)
Associate Professor of Geography, Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Illinois; National Secretary-Treasurer, Gamma Theta Upsilon, National Geography Fraternity.

Harding, George E. (31)

Hewes, George F. (M.A. '24) Assistant Professor of Geography, Teachers College of Connecticut, New Britain, Conn.

Hoyt, Joseph B. (44-'49) Assistant Professor, New Haven State Teachers College, New Haven, Conn.

Hudgin, Bert (Ph.D. '30) Chairman, Department of Geography, University of Detroit, Michigan.

Hunts, Thos. F. ('27) Associate Professor of Geography, W.W.C., Belingham, Wash.

Jennings, John L. (Ph.D. '51) Associate Professor, Department of Geography, University of Pittsburgh, Pa.; articles: "Destructive Forces in the Physiography of Western Arctic Canada, Geographical Review; "An de Jonge, E. J. Coen Kiewiet, (Ph.D. '51) Photo-geologist for Royal Dutch Shell. Presently working in Holland but will soon spend three years in Venezuela doing field studies and aerial photo interpretation.

Oceanographic Study of the Canadian Western Arctic," to be published by the Geographical Branch, Dominion of Canada Government, Ottawa; "The Problem of Glaciation in the Western Islands of Arctic Canada," ready for publication.

Kerrod, Mrs. Marguerite Plante (M.A. '48) Teacher of Geography, East Whiteland School, West Chester, Pa.

Kelley, Charles B. L. (B.A. '09) Presently retired but interested in teaching geology, mineralogy, surveying, and engineer drawing in association with a geography department. Address: 214 Rutland Road, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Koepke, Clarence E. (Ph.D. '27) Retired but assisting in the Department of Geography at San Diego State College. Presently engaged in revising McKnight's "Weather and Climate."

Laine, Oliver H. (M.A. '50) Instructor in Geography, State Teachers College, Towson, Md. Dissertation on community area of Towson now underway.

Lane, Charles F. (45-'46) Associate Professor of Geography, Longwood College, Farmville, Va. Vice-President of Virginia Geographical Society; read a paper on "World Geography in the High School" at a recent meeting of the Society.

Lowe, Harry L. (41-'42) Professor of Geography at Austin Peay State College, Clarksville, Tenn. Active in community affairs, member of city council.

Lemons, Hoyt, Research Director, Army Q.M.C. in Washington, D.C.

Little, Dana A. (M.A. '51) Geographer, TIS, G.H.G., FEC.

Lloyd, Trevor (Ph.D. '40) Professor of Geography and Chairman, Department of Geography, Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire. In Process, "Study of the Reconstruction of Arctic Norway" and "The Geographic Administration of Modern Greenland." 1951 Field work: Great Britain, Copenhagen, Lapland (March and April), Norway, Finland and Sweden completing 1949 study of Northern Scandinavia; west Greenland north to Disko Island, ice caused cancellation of trip to Angmagssalik.

Long, Harriet Ruth (M.A. '41) Geographic Editor, Gunn and Company, Boston, Mass.

MacGaw, Bradford K. (38-39) Assistant Professor of Geology and Geography, University of Chattanooga, Chattanooga, Tenn. Recently investigated mineral deposits in Northern Quebec.

McIntyre, Wallace E., Associate Professor of Geography, Illinois State Normal University. Recipient of 1952-53 Fulbright Award to lecture in Geography at University of Philippines. In recess, "Nagoya Power-Re-development" to be published in Economic Geography.

Macon, Carol Y. (Ph.D. '35) Associate Professor of Geography, University of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

McDavitt, Newa (M.A. '29) Associate Professor of Geography, Illinois State Normal University.

Miler, Rex C. ('47-49) Technologist with Office of Quartermaster General, Washington.

Mordland, Andrew S. (M.A. '50) Teaching of Social Studies, Junior High, Atlantic City, N.J. Part-time graduate study at Rutgers University.

Moyer, C. Josephine (38-49) Head, Department of Geography, Kutztown, Pennsylvania, State Teachers College.

Mizir, Miodore (M.A. '46) Assistant Professor of Geography, Los Angeles State College.

O'Brien, Anne (M.A. '33) Housewife, 123 Monadnock Road, Worcester, Mass.

Ogilvie, Bruce C. (M.A. '49) Assistant Professor of Geography, Chi." State College.

Olson, Ralph E. (Ph.D. '46) Associate Professor of Geography, University of Illinois. Acting Chairman, Department of Geography, during absence on leave of Dr. Harry E. Hoy. Member of Executive Board, National Council of Geography Teachers and Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Oklahoma Academy of Science. Article: "The International Wheat Agreement." Recently completed work on research project for Johns Hopkins University Operations Research Office.

Page, Leonerd O. (M.A. '26) Formerly Head of Department of Geography, Boston Teachers College. Now retired. Work on Needham Rotary Club published. Published a major work in Maps for the Teacher. Published in the American Geography of the A.A.G. Chairman of the Cartography Committee of the A.A.G.

Randall, Lawrence E. (M.A. '50) Pilot with 375th Troop Carrier Wing, Donaldson AFB, South Carolina.

Reith, John W. (M.A. '41) Head, Department of Geography, University of Southern California. Writing chapter on "Mineral Fuels" in book on California and the Southwest. Published a major work in Maps for the Teacher. Published in the American Geography of the A.A.G. Chairman of the Cartography Committee of the A.A.G.

Rice, Ralph (Ph.D. '38) At present Chairman of Puerto Rico Planning Board, President, American Society of Planning Officials, 1949-51; Member of the Land Classification Committee, Pan American Institute of Geography and History since May 1950. Member of Board of Commissioners of San Juan since July 1951, and of the Organized Committee of Third Pan American Consultation on Geography to be held in Washington, 1952. Commissioner, U. S. Section of Caribbean Commission, since 1946. Dr. Pieo was U. S. delegate to the 5th General Assembly of Pan American Institute of Geography and History held in San Diego, Chile, October 1950. Publications include revised version of "The Geographic Regions of Puerto Rico," 1950 and articles on Puerto Rico in the "United Nations World" and in the "Story of Our Time." Now working on a book entitled, "La Geografia Fisica De Puerto Rico."

Quam, Louis O. (Ph.D. '38) Head, Geographic Branch, Office of Naval Research, Washington. Secretary, A.A.G. since 1951.

Randall, Lawrence E. (M.A. '50) Pilot with 375th Troop Carrier Wing, Donaldson AFB, South Carolina.

Reith, John W. (M.A. '41) Head, Department of Geography, University of Southern California. Writing chapter on "Mineral Fuels" in book on California and the Southwest. Published a major work in Maps for the Teacher. Published in the American Geography of the A.A.G. Chairman of the Cartography Committee of the A.A.G.
Robert L. Catherine (Ph.D. '38) Professor and Chairman, Geography Department, Drew University, Madison, N. J. Recently returned from sabbatical leave in Southwestern U. S. and West Indies.

Robert C. Callow (M.A. '24) Head, Department of Geography, State Teachers College, Valley City, North Dakota. Completed reports as Chairman of Committee in Standards of Certification for the National Council of Geography Teachers.

Royer, Mary Alice (M.A. '44) Teaching at White Street School, Springfield, Mass.

Saunders, Robert M. (M.A. '25) Associate Professor of History, University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada.

“Canadian Quest,” 1951.

Shaw, Earl B. (Ph.D. '33) Professor of Geography, State Teachers College, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Shibuya, Ada M. (B.A. '47-'48) Associate Professor of Geography, State Teachers College, Framingham, Mass. Taught at State Teachers College, Gorham, Maine during summer session 1950; at State Teachers College, Farmington, Maine during summer session 1951.

Shipman, Julia M. (Ph.D. '28) East Arlington, Vermont. Retired after 45 years of teaching; teaching some Junior High Students one evening a week for recreation.

Smith, Helen Royer (M.A. '38) Housewife, Victoria, B. C., Canada.

Spieck, Raymond E. (M.A. '47) Geography Department, Central State College, Stevens Point, Wisconsin; Vice-Chairman Geography Section in Association of Wisconsin State College Faculties; Head of Driver Education Dept. Central State College; conducted Summer School Field Trip "Colonial New England and Provincial French Canada" 1951; conducting "Historiography Survey, City of New London, Wisconsin" in fall of 1951.

Stacey, Karl (37-'39, '49-'50) Associate Professor of Geography, Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas; did field work in Oklahoma summer 1951, on thesis.

Stoesser, John (M.S. '23) Professor Emeritus, Department of Geography, Indiana University.

Terrell, R. Paul (Ph.D. '49) State Teachers College, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

of the Southwest.” Revising Regional Geography of Anglo-America, with E. J. Miticheck, was one of four authors of “World Economic Geography” (1951); paper “Altitude: Its Role in the Geography of Man in the Peruvian Sierra” before the Association of Pacific Coast Geographers.

Whittimore, Kathryn Thomas (Ph.D. ’46) Professor of Geography, New York State College for Teachers, Buffalo; Member Board of Directors, National Council of Geography Teachers; Member Social Studies Committee for the New York State Scholarship Examination.

Winslow, David C. (Major) (Ph.D. ’40) Air Force R.O.T.C., Department of Defense, Oklahoma. Assistant Professor of Air Science and Tactics, Assistant Commander of Cadets. Editor, Physical and Social Science, Proceedings, Oklahoma Academy of Science; Consulting Editor, Harlow State Series; Published, “Kansas Geography”; revised, “Fifth Grade Geography,” and “Sixth Grade Geography” (1951); National Policy Committee, Soil Conservation Society of America; President of Phi Delta Kappa, Oklahoma A. & M. College; Political Geography Supervisor and taught at Air University, Maxwell Air Base.

Wright, Marion L. (M.A. ’46) Assistant Professor, Rhode Island College of Education, Secretary-Treasurer, New England Geographical Conference; State Coordinator, National Council of Geography Teachers; teaching geography course in Extension Department, State Teachers College, Bridgewater, Massachusetts; studied at University of Colorado, summer of 1951.

Zeller, Rose (Ph.D. ’40) Professor of Geography, Eastern Illinois State College; Chairman of the Revision of the Constitution Committee, Gamma Theta Upsilon Zuber, Leo J. (’48-’49) Planning Technician, Metropolitan Planning Commission, Atlanta, Georgia; Member Southeast Section and Atlanta Chapter of AIP; leave from teaching evening classes at the Atlanta Division University of Georgia; contributed largely to “Up Ahead,” 1952 report of Metropolitan Atlanta; 1950 publication of “What’s a Map Worth.”

STAFF ACTIVITIES

In addition to his activities in teaching, traveling and lecturing, Dr. S. Van Valkenburg has been busy as Chairman of the Program Committee for the L.G.U. meeting in Washington this summer. The proof-reading of his book “Geography of Europe” has been completed and publication is set for this summer. The manuscript of “Elements of Political Geography,” publication of which was postponed due to the illness of Dr. Carl Stots, will be sent to the publishers in the near future. During the summer Dr. Van will direct the Summer School session at Clark before attending the A.A.G. and I.G.U. meetings in Washington. There he will preside over a special session on the world Land Use Survey project. At the end of August Dr. and Mrs. Van will set off for the Near East, spending six weeks traveling through the Arab countries and arriving at the University of Baghdad for the Fall semester. Dr. Van will return to this country by February of next year. During his absence Dr. Hans Boesch will be teaching at Clark.

Dr. Raymond E. Murphy, in addition to teaching and editing “Eco- nomic Geography,” has been editing the Economic Geography Chapter for the “American Geography—Inventory and Prospect.” With Mrs. Murphy he has been working on the revision of two earlier books on Pennsylvania, “Pennsylvania Landscapes,” a Junior High text, and “Pennsylvania: A Regional Geography,” a college text. Dr. Murphy has this year been a member of the Council of the A.A.G. and of the Advisory Committee on Geography to the Office of Naval Research. In the summer he will work on an O.N.R. project with James Vance, studying central business districts of American cities.

During the year Dr. Richard J. Lougee has assisted Adrian Vander Pyl and Dave Hokans in the completion of theses on features of Connecticut physiography. He has prepared guide-book material for the I.G.U. Excursion through New England, for which he will act as a guide. At the Congress Dr. Lougee will present a paper in the Geomorphology section, a summation of twenty years research work, entitled “The Correlation of Post-Glacial Crustal Movements.” Prior to the I.G.U. meetings Dr. Lougee will travel to North Dakota to survey the fossil beaches of glacial Lake Souris. He has also been granted funds for research and survey of the Saguenay valley and Lake St. John, Quebec, later in the summer.

Dr. Henry J. Warman is this year Vice-President of both the National Council for Social Studies (New England Division) and the National Council of Geography Teachers. He will assume the Presidency of these organizations in June and January respectively. During the summer he will work on a government project at Clark. Before the Washington meetings he will be a member of the Honorary Advisory Group welcoming delegates to the Pan-American Institute of Geography and History on July 25th. He will then attend meetings of the National Council of Geography Teachers and the I.G.U. where he will present a paper in the Teaching section entitled “The Significance of the World’s Empty Lands,” emphasizing the global approach in teaching.

Dr. Edward C. Higbee has prepared courses in Geography and Biogeography, the last especially notable as a seminar course serving refreshments. The courses included a field trip to the High Peaks and Adirondack Forest. During the summer Dr. Higbee will be a consultant with the Conservation Foundation in New York.

Mr. Guy H. Burnham, in addition to guiding a group through the tricacies of Cartography, has continued his work of map classification and preparation of maps for Economic Geography.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM

The Summer School this year will comprise one six-week session, starting June 23rd. It will include courses for teachers, graduates and undergraduates. Five courses will be offered. Dr. S. Van Valkenburg will present "Political Geography—Problem Areas," and "Regional Geography of the Mediterranean," Dr. Neville T. Scarfe, Dean of the School of Education, University of Manitoba, will give courses on "Geography in Education" and "Agricultural Geography of Great Britain." Mr. Burnham will direct "Cartography."

VISITING LECTURERS

Dr. Stephen Jones from Yale gave a very informative lecture on theories of political geography, his special field.

Dr. Karl Peltzer gave a most interesting account of Malaya, where he spent some time during the last few years, and had the chance to travel through the region.

Dr. Fridtjof Isachsen gave a series of lectures, illustrated by kodachrome slides, on his homeland, Norway. The topics were, "Physiography and Water-power in Scandinavia," "Rural Land-use in Norway" and "Urban Land-use." Especially interesting was his last lecture in which he explained the various techniques used in his survey of Oslo.

Dr. Preston James from Syracuse paid a fleeting visit and gave an interesting talk on Northeast Brazil, illustrated by slides. He explained some of the problems he faced in making a land-use map of the area.

Dr. William Hobbs, authority on glacial physiography and sponsor of expeditions to Greenland, spoke on "The Glacial History of North America and the Ice-cap of Greenland."

Dr. Trevor Lloyd, a former student at Clark, spoke on the boundary between Norway and U.S.S.R. This far-northern boundary between Russia and Western Europe was depicted by a number of interesting maps and slides.

TEAS

The CUGS Tea Committee was busy again this year entertaining the many guest lecturers who came from far and wide to speak to the Graduate School of Geography. In December, Stephen Jones of Yale University was the featured guest. He was followed by his colleague, Karl Peltzer, at another tea. Fridtjof Isachsen, of Norway, was guest in the latter part of February. In March, Preston James visited the School and chatted with the students and faculty alike at a tea before he spoke on his travels in N. E. Brazil. The last outside lecturer was Trevor Lloyd who was given a tea in the last part of April.

THE MONADNOCK STAFF

Editor—John R. Dunkle

Contributors

Donald Atwell Jean Laing
Bertrand Boucher Thein Maung
Carolla Haglund John Pawling
Allen Harris Richard Randall
Azra Husain Wouter Van de Bunt