THE MONADNOCK

of the

Clark University Geographical Society

"... geography is concerned to provide accurate, orderly, and rational description and interpretation of the variable character of the earth surface. ... In contrast to the sciences concerned with particular categories of phenomena, geography is concerned with features not in themselves but as elements in areal integration."

Richard Hartshorne, 1959

VOLUME XXXIV, No. 2

MAY, 1960
STAFF NEWS

Dr. Samuel Van Valkenburg will leave for Europe in early summer to continue investigations of land use. On this trip his study will be concentrated in Austria. Dr. Van will attend the Stockholm meetings of the International Geographical Union before returning to guide the Graduate School of Geography through another year.

In June and July, Dr. Raymond E. Murphy will teach at the University of Nebraska. He plans to depart for Europe in late July and, after the I.G.U. meetings, present a paper at an urban symposium at Lund.

Dr. Henry J. Warran plans to teach weather and climate at the Clark University intersession then move on to the University of Colorado's Workshop in Geography. Later in the summer he will fly to Stockholm. The trip back will probably be via the polar route to Los Angeles, then by car to Worcester.

Dr. Richard J. Lougee was forced to give up his classroom teaching early in the new year because of cancer. Hospitalized for many weeks, his illness has left him undaunted. Students, even those new to Clark, will long remember his clear presentation of complex geomorphic and physiographic phenomena. No one will forget the Christmas party where he was presented with the lyra-detector machine. Unfortunately, the presentation of his glacial theories at the Stockholm meetings had to be cancelled. The Monadnock and Workroom gang wish this kind man and noble scholar our best wishes for better health.

The visiting Professor this semester is Dr. Erwin Raiss, who is teaching aerial photo and map interpretation as well as physiography. Many of us have marveled while watching Dr. Raiss produce landform diagrams and become frustrated at our own attempts.

Dr. Hans Carol will leave for Switzerland and, in August, visit Stockholm. Later in the summer he will bring his family to the U.S. where he has accepted a position at the University of Cincinnati. The CUGS are fortunate to have had the opportunity to study under the guidance of excellent geographers, but not all can remain with us for more than a year or two. Workroom members of the past two years will remember Dr. Carol as "master" of our studies in Field Techniques, Africa, Land Use and the APLU (agrophysical land unit). We wish him the best in his new academic venture and hope that his stay in this country may be long and pleasant.

Mr. Guy Burnham will offer cartography again this summer for those eager beavers who want to keep cool.

Agnes M. Allen (M.A., '34, Ph.D. '37) Director, Division of Science and Mathematics, Arizona State College, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Marian (Banks) Wilkinson (M.A. '44) 2 Sultan St., Toronto 5, Ontario, Canada.

Ruth E. Baugh (M.A., '26, Ph.D., '29) Professor Emeritus, University of California, Los Angeles (1134 Wellingon Ave., Pasadena). During 1955-56 Dr. Baugh was Visiting Professor of Geography at the University of Nebraska.

George Biehl (M.A., '37) Professor of Geography, State Teachers College, Towson (1530 Taylor Ave., Baltimore 14, Maryland) Al Forsy, a Towson graduate, is now studying at Clark.

Lloyd D. Black (M.A., '16) Program Officer, Office of Area Development, U.S. Department of Commerce and Adjunct Professor, American University, Washington (10700 Connecticut Ave., Garrett Park, Maryland) Annual revisions of World Political Geography section of Encyclopaedia Britannica World Atlas and several articles on urban and rural development.

Carl J. Blomfield (M.A., '34) and Gertrude E. (Bredy) Blomfield (M.A., '35) Counselor and teacher (1108 Lansdowne, Detroit 2, Michigan) The Blomfields have three daughters with the eldest, Narda, now in college.

Hans Bocch (134-135) Professor of Geography, Zurich University, Director, Geographical Institute, Zurich University; Secretary, International Geographical Union (3 Hoehstrasse, Zollikon, 28, Switzerland) McGill University Summer School, 1955 and travel in New Zealand and Malaysia. Published book Der Mittlere Osten and edited the I.G.U. New bulletin.

Adalbert K. Botts (M.A., '31, Ph.D. '34) Professor of Geography and Chairman, Department of Social Studies, Trenton State College, Trenton (40 North Main Street, Flemington, New Jersey) President National Council for Geographic Education and editor, New Jersey Geographical Newsletter, Late mayor of Borough of Flemington, N. J.

Bertrand F. Boucher (151-152) Assistant Professor, Montclair State College, Montclair, New Jersey. A daughter Susan was born last October. Article "The Road Map, A Key to Geographical Learning" in the USBA review and two more to be published in The Education Forum and Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society.

J. Herbert Burgy (Ph.D., '30) Professor and Head, Department of Geography and Geology, Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois. Taught at Los Angeles State College and traveled extensively in the West during the summer of '59.
Kerith F. Burrill (M.A. '26, Ph.D. '30) Director, Office of Geography and Executive Secretary, Board on Geographic Names, Washington (3503 Grove St., Chevy Chase 17, Maryland). Visited Antarctica in late 1959 and received citation from Central Intelligence Agency for contributions of the Office to the Intelligence effort.

Harry H. Caldwell (B.A. '41, Ph.D. '52) Associate Professor of Geography, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho. Continued work as planning consultant and was workshop participant at meetings of the American Institute of Planners, at Seattle last July. Dr. Caldwell plans to lead a study tour in Europe this summer.

Albert S. Carlson (M.A. '31, Ph.D. '39) Professor of Geography, Dartmouth College, (7 Conant Rd., Hanover, New Hampshire). Executive Secretary, Dartmouth-Lake Sunapee Region Association.

Philip K. Caughey (45-46) Assistant Principal and geography teacher, Lexington, Massachusetts (8 Crescent Ave., Bedford, Massachusetts).

Margaret S. Chow (136-37, '51-52) Chairman, Geography Department, Wisconsin State College, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

George S. Corfield (M.A. '31) Associate Professor and Chairman, Department of Geography, Nebraska Wesleyan University, Lincoln, Nebraska. Research on the "Arid Southwest" and "Changing Economies of the Nebraska Panhandle."

Brooke Cornwall (156-57) Acting Head, Eastern and Western Canada Section, Geographical Branch, Ottawa (1366 Grizzle St., Ottawa 1, Ontario) Another aerial reconnaissance of Eastern, Past Secretary, Canadian Association of Geographers.

Clare M. Crane (Ph.D. '51) Professor and Chairman, Department of Geography, University of Denver (3075 East Vassar Lane, Denver 22, Colorado). APMO, U.S. Air Force publication, A Prediction Model for Population Impact: Parts I and II. Future research on regional development for Santa Barbara County, California.

Edith (Horn) Crane (M.A. '27) 30 Woodlawn Ave., Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts.

George B. Cressy (Ph.D. '23) Professor, Department of Geography, Syracuse University, Syracuse 10, New York. To be published this Spring, Roadside, Plants and Life in Scandinavia this summer, the International Congress of Orientalists, Moscow.

Harold F. Creveling (Ph.D. '51) Professor and Head, Geography Department, Stroudsburg State Teachers College (911 N. Ninth St., Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania). President, College Branch Chapter of Pennsylvania State Education Association. Traveled through South and West during the past summer.

Floyd F. Cunningham (A.B. '28, Ph.D. '30) Professor of Geography, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale (R.R.1, F.O. Box 267, Carbondale, Illinois). Now Director of the Laboratory of Climatology.

Robert A. Davis (50-53) Master-In-Geography, Hillfield College, Hamilton, Ontario (42 Melville Ave., Toronto 1, Ontario). Working on his dissertation and planning trip to Stockholm this summer.

Richard L. Day (A.B. '48, M.A. '50) Assistant Professor of Geography, University of Florida, Gainesville. Completed Ph.D. at University of Illinois, several papers in transportation geography are in preparation for geographical meetings.

Veva E. Dean (Ph.D. '49) Professor of Geography, State Teachers College, Pitsburgh (660 Westminster Hill Rd., Pitsburgh, Mass.). Vacationed last summer in the Bahamas.

George P. Deasy (Ph.D. '48) Professor, Department of Geography, Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania.

E. J. C. Kiewiet de Jonge (Ph.D. '51) Geologist, Shell Oil Company (301 E. West Alameda, Roswell, New Mexico). Worked in Northern Canada during the summer of 1956 and has been in New Mexico for a year.

Audrey Eism (M.A. '55) Assistant Professor, State University, Fotsdam, New York. Article in Journal of Geography "The Mont Blanc Tunnel: A New Route Through the Alps."

Sidney E. Eckblaw (Ph.D. '36) Professor and Chairman, Department of Geology and Geography, University of Kansas City (5810 W. 169th Ave., Kansas City 30, Missouri). Frequent teaching Earth Science, Bases of Human Geography and Advanced Physiography.

Bart J. Epstein (Ph.D. '56) Manager of Property Acquisition, Stop and Shop, Inc. (80 Old Country Way, Weymouth 86, Massachusetts).

Richard B. Erickson (M.A. '59) and Marcia Erickson (Davidson, M.A. '59) Planning Technician, Cape May County Planning Board (119 Mechanic St., Cape May Court House, New Jersey).
Weathering in Canada," and a department Geographical Paper (No. 22) on glaciation of King William Island and Adelaide Peninsula. A son, John Graeme, was born July 13, 1959.

Roland J. Fuchs (M.A., Ph.D., ’59) Assistant Professor of Geography, University of Hawaii (Honolulu, Hawaii). Visited volcanic eruptions on the island of Hawaii and descended crater near eruption.

Mohammad Hassan Ganji (Ph.D., ’51) Assistant Professor, Tehran University, Director General, Iranian Meteorological Department and Secretary, Imperial Geographical Society (Koocheh Shahrud, Av. Shah-Reza, Tehran). During 1959 he travelled on official business to Europe, Lebanon, Turkey and Burma. A publication on the Rainfall Data of Iran was published January, 1960 and a Climatic Atlas of Iran is in preparation.

Joan Goodfellow (M.A., ’59) Left the University of Toronto to work at the Geographical Branch, 601 Booth St., Ottawa, Ontario.

Loren Gould (M.A., ’59) Instructor in Geography, Worcester State Teachers College (15 Curve St., Millbury, Mass)

Andreas Grotewold (M.A., ’51) Assistant Professor, Department of Geography, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri. Article, "The Study of the Geograph, in Economic Geography has been published and work begun on a monograph on the geography of international trade.

Edna M. Guccione (M.A., ’57) Professor of Geography, Illinois State Normal University (11, Fairview Acres, Normal, Illinois),

Emeline C. Hight (M.A., ’45) Chairman, Social Studies Department, Junior and Senior High Schools of West Hartford (Conrad High School, 110 Berkshire Road, West Hartford 7, Conn.). Research in merit rating of teachers and toward completion of dissertation.

Carl F. Holzhammer (M.A., ’28) Teacher, Southeastern High School (2311 Eastburn Ave., Detroit 5 Michigan). Summers have been spent in the Rocky Mountains with wife (Edith Hoyt, M.A., ’28).

George F. Howe (A.B., ’22, M.A., ’23) Associate Professor of Geography, Central Conn. State College (15 South Main St., West Hartford 10, Conn.). Took part in lecture series for teachers in two sections of the state.

Joseph B. Hoyt (Ph.D., ’54) Professor of Geography and Chairman of Social Science Department, State Teachers College, New Haven (Johnson Rd., Woodbridge, Conn.). Writing an introductory textbook for a geography course of one semester length.

Gilbert J. Hunter (M.A., ’59) City Planner, Chicago (5243 S. Cornell Ave., Chicago 15, Ill.). Promoted last January, he has been undertaking field work on urbanization of Chicago's commercial blight for urban renewal programming. Hopes to return to college teaching next Fall.

Preston E. James (Ph.D., '33) Chairman, Department of Geography, Syracuse University, Syracuse 10, New York. President of newly created Association for Latin American Studies and Chairman, Education Section, 72nd Biennial NHSSC Conference in Denver in September. Last year revisions of two texts were published—Latin America and A Geography of Man. Dr. James also produced a 9th grade textbook, edited new viewpoints in geography and contributed to a popular book, The Romance of North America.

J. Granville Jensen (Ph.D., '46) Professor and Chairman, Department of Natural Resources, Oregon State College. Just returned from a year's sabbatical in Mexico and working on "Economic Production," with R.K. Highsmith, Jr.

Jane J. Johnson (M.A., '54, '56-'59) Instructor, Department of Geography, Wayne State University, Detroit 2 (21716 Scotia Rd., Oak Park 37, Michigan). Completing dissertation this summer.

Lois R. Kellar (M.A. '29) is now retired (3232 East Fairfax Rd., Cleveland Heights 18, Ohio).

Md. Halim Khan (Ph.D., '57) Head, Department of Geography, Faculty of Letters and Culture, Gadjah Mada University, Jogjakarta, Indonesia (30, Bulak Sumar, Jogjakarta). A daughter has been added to the family. Studies of Gunung Kidul area, Java and of water and economic geography of mid-Java.

Harry B. Kircher (150-'51, '57) Economist, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis and part-time Lecturer, Washington University in St. Louis (1 Dover Dr., Belleville Illinois). Writing dissertation on financial hierarchy of cities in United States.

Esther I. Kistler (M.A. '38) Housemother, Lanenau School for Girls, Philadelphia (212 State St., Nanticoke, Penn.). Miss Kistler just retired from teaching at the High School of Nanticoke.

William A. Koelsch (M.A. '59) Graduate student in history and geography, University of Chicago (4901 Ellis Ave., Chicago, Ill.). Two reviews in recent numbers of Economic Geography.

Clarence E. Kopecky (A.M. '27, Ph.D. '29) 7602 La Jolla Blvd., La Jolla, California. Dr. Kopecky's daughter Mary was married last December on the anniversary of her parents' wedding. This summer he will travel in northern Europe with his wife.

Richard J. Kopecky (157-'59) Assistant Professor, Millersville State Teachers College, Millersville, Pennsylvania (212 Columbia Ave., Lancaster, Penn.).

Miss Rajnok Bunawat (156-'56) Lecturer, Department of History and Geography, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand.

Oliver S. Laine (M.A. '49, Ph.D. '53) Executive Dean, Catawba Community College (1935 Altavue Rd., Catonsville 20, Maryland).

George Langdon (Ph.D., '51) Professor of Geography, State Teachers College, West Chester and Visiting Lecturer University of Delaware (34 Penn Dr., East, North Hill, West Chester, Penn.). Producing educational films on the geography of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. Most of the films have been released for use.

Louis E. Leipold (M.A. '46) Chief, Western Division, Department of Engineering Intelligence, Army Map Service (300 N. Vermont Place, Rockville, Maryland). Promoted from Chief, Control Branch.

Minnie E. Lemaire (Ph.D., '35) Chairman, Department of Geology and Geography, Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts.

Urban J. Linahan (M.A. '46, Ph.D. '55) Assistant Professor of Geography, Catholic University of America (3605 Greenly St., Silver Spring, Maryland).

Dana A. Little (M.A., '55-'56) Planning Associate, Department of Economic Development, Augusta, Maine (8 College St., Brunswick, Maine).

Trevor Lloyd (Ph.D., '40) Professor of Human Geography, Geography Department, McGill University, Montreal 2, Quebec. Continuing studies of the economic development of Greenland and northern Norway. Congratulations to Dr. Lloyd on his appointment to the new Chair of Human Geography at McGill.

Richard F. Logan (S.A., '36, M.A., '37) Associate Professor of Geography, University of California, Los Angeles 36, Calif. Vice President, Los Angeles Geographic Society and Chairman, Topographic Map Committee, National Research Council, Chapter in Hubert and Flock, "Natural Resources, the Future of Arid Lands and Two Chapters in Forthcoming UNESCO Book on the Land Use in Arid Lands of U.S.A. and B.W. Africa.

Harriet Ruth Long (M.A., '41, Ph.D., '55) Professor and Head, Geography Department, State Teachers College, Edinboro (Box 299, Edinboro, Pennsylvania).

Arthur C. Lord (M.A., '59) Instructor, Geography Department, Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, Michigan.

Shannon McCune (Ph.D., '39) Provost, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, continued his work on studies of the Far East with a visit to Japan last year.

Grace (Lee) McIntosh (131) 403 West Pine St., Rome, New York.

Harley F. Milstead (Ph.D., '33) Chairman, Geography Department, East Carolina College, Box 107, Greenville, North Carolina. Just finished revision of new book, Geography of New Jersey.

Paul C. Morrison (Ph.D., '41) Professor of Geography, Michigan State University (520 Sycamore Lane, East Lansing, Michigan). Contributed to lead paper in Symposium Interamericana No. 1, September, 1959, and took auto trip around the Gaspé Peninsula last summer.

John M. Moulton (M.A., '59) Chairman, Department of Geography and Geology, Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska, studying late glacial history of lake St. George, Maine, and irrigation in Nebraska and adjacent states.

Richard E. Murphy (Ph.D., '57) Associate Professor of Geography, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Left George Washington U. to teach in the "beautiful western country.

Zain Nadirjash (M.A., '58) Instructor, University of Indonesia and working at Regional City Planning Bureau, Division of Public Work and Power (Pjaan Pembangunan II/4, Djakarta). Married last June and now active in the Committee of Natural Resources Atlas of Indonesia.

Salvatore J. Natoli (M.A., '57) Associate Professor of Geography, State Teachers College (Box 43, Mansfield, Pennsylvania). Plans are underway concerning co-authorship of a junior highschool text on geography.

Herman L. Nelson (Ph.D., '51) Professor of Earth Science, Science Department, Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, Iowa. Last summer Dr. Nelson travelled 15,000 miles through the U.S.

Howard L. Ohman (M.A., '49) Geographer, Quadrant Research (Engineering Center, Natick, Mass., (23 Sunrise Ave., Worcester 6)

Gerald E. Overstreet (157-156) High school teacher in Mexico, Oklahoma (Ringwood, Oklahoma, Route 2).

John W. Powell (M.A., '52) Assistant Instructor and Ph.D. candidate, Department of Geography, Michigan State University, East Lansing. Article, "Geographic Twenty Questions" in Journal of Geography.

Joseph S. Pendleton (’30-’58) Instructor of Geography (110 Natton, Norfolk 6, Virginia). Visited Puerto Rico and took a field trip to southeastern states.

Robert F. Perry, Jr. (Ph.D., ’57) Professor and Chairman, Department of Geography, Worcester State Teachers College (11 Crestwood Rd., Fitch, Mass.). Traveled in eastern Canada and U.S. during past summer. Research is underway for an earth science textbook for secondary schools.

Merle Purry Jr. (Ph.D. ’44) Professor and Chairman, Department of Geography and Biology, University of Georgia, Athens. A book on the Geography of the South and a monograph on Contemporary Southern Plantations are being written. Last fall the new, well-equipped geography building was opened at the university.

Louis O. Quam (Ph.D. ’38) Director, Earth Sciences Division, Office of Naval Research (300 Forest Drive, Falls Church, Virginia), Dr. Quam now has control of Geophysics, Oceanography, Meteorology, Acoustics and Field Projects Branches.

Clarice and Lawrence Randall (’49-’50) Still Military Air Transport pilot (C-121’s) 850 Monroe Terrace, Dover, Delaware.

Pauline Riordan (M.A. ’59) Research Analyst in Geography for Arctic Bibliography (28 Oakview Terrace, Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts).

J. Lewis Robinson (Ph.D. ’46) Head, Department of Geography, University of British Columbia, 1750 West 7th Ave., Vancouver 8, B.C.). A girl, Patricia Louise, born last August, was added to the Robinson family, now five in number.

Robert W. Rucker (M.A. ’28) Associate Professor, State Teachers College, Bridgewater (39 Pleasant St., Bridgewater, Massachusetts).

Edward D. Russell (A.B. ’21, M.A. ’22) Mailing address is Professor Deborah Russell, State Teachers College, Framingham Center, Massachusetts.

Paul V. Salley (M.A. ’51) Chairman, Geography Department, Salem State Teachers College, Salem (53 Western Ave., Beverly, Mass.). Promoted to Associate Professor and Department Chairman. A recent family addition now makes it five in all.

Frederick S. Sanford (’48-’50) Production Planner, Sikorsky Aircraft, Stratford, Conn. (29 Prindle Ave., Anson, Connecticut), moved into new home. Two children, Gordon and Brenda.

Barbara R. Saydam (156-’57) City Planner, Planning Commission, Providence (25 Fifth St., Providence, Rhode Island).

Gordon E. Schiltz (Ph.D. ’48) Head, Geography Department, University of Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska. From September to March has been presenting a half-hour television program on "World Regions". A book on Africa is in process.

Gerald W. Schultz, Jr. (’37-’38) Assistant Professor, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee (3736 A, North 9th, Milwaukee, Wisconsin).

J. R. Schwendeman (M.A. ’27, Ph.D. ’31) Head, Department of Geography, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Published 48 Hour Air Age Time and Day Chart and climate section of Water Resources Committee Publication, Department of Conservation, Kentucky. Also Director of College Geography of the United States, Vol. 10, 1957. Will teach in Instituto Tecnologico de Monterrey, Mexico this summer.

Muriel Shank (M.A. ’23) Associate Professor, Department of Geography, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Earl B. Shaw (Ph.D. ’33) Retired at 45 Elm St., Worcester 9, Massachusetts. Last semester Dr. Shaw taught at the University of Delaware and published in September a new book, Anglo-America.
Dr. Angelika Stevers (M.A.,'36) Professor at Pädagogische Hochschule (State Teachers College), Vechten (Wülenstreet 44, Veched in Oldbg, West Germany), Anthropogeographic studies in Ceylon and southern India, August, 1958 to March, 1959. Articles have been published in anthropogeographic and environmental conditions of Christians in India and Ceylon.

Victor W. Sim (M.A., '57) Geographer, Geographical Branch, Department of Mines and Technical Surveys (601 Booth St., Ottawa, Ontario). Spent the summer studying the physiography of Melville Peninsula. He operated from the H.O.S. post at Repulse Bay.

Paul A. Siple (Ph.D., '39) Scientific Advisor, Army Research Office, Chief of Research and Development, Department of the Army (111 K. Jackson St., Arlington, Va.). Dr. Siple has recently published a book, "South America, The South Pole," by next fall, two daughters will be taking geography courses in college.

Albert W. Smith (A.B.,'43) Associate Professor and Chairman, Department of Geography, University of Colorado, Boulder. Revised Laboratory and Field Exercises in Physical Geography. Articles in Encyclopedic Britannica on Cezbrics and Soure de Cristos.

Helen L. Smith (Ph.D.,'50) Associate Professor of Geography, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois. Co-author on chapter on Southeast Asia in economic geography text to be published by Pittman. Visiting Professor, Iowa State Teachers College, summer, 1959.

Chester E. Smolinski (M.A., '53) Assistant Professor of Geography, Rhode Island College of Education, Providence 6, Rhode Island.

John A. Sobel (M.A.,'49) Assistant Professor of Geography, Memphis State University, Memphis 11, Tennessee.

Raymond E. Specht (M.A., '47) Associate Professor of Geography, Wisconsin State College, Stevens Point, Wis. Completed course work toward Ph.D. at Northwestern University.

Karl Stacey (Ph.D.,'55) Professor of Geography, Department of Geology, Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas. A girl, Barbara, was born September 2, 1959 making the latest estimate two girls and four boys.

Reed F. Stewart (183-59) Teacher of geography at Duxbury High School, Duxbury, Massachusetts (Elm St., R.F.D. 2, Kingston, Mass.). Reed is married with five children.

Hazel Latendress Stickney (14-54, '51-52) Assistant Professor, Livington, Alabama.

Phelps N. Swett Retired (149 R. St., Middlebury, Vermont).

R. Paul Terrell (Ph.D., '49) Head, Department of Geography and Geology, Western State College, Bowling Green, Kentucky. Working on a geography of Kentucky and preparing to offer a graduate major in geography.

Jessie (Thornton) Jessenman (M.A.,'41) Just resigned as teacher of geography (287 South St., Concord, New Hampshire).

Ray W. Tobe (M.A.,'53) Now retired, living at Pine Cone Farm, Fairfield, Maine.

Sister Mary Ursula Hauck, R.S.M. (Ph.D.,'52) Instructor, Mount Aloysius Junior College, Cresson, Pennsylvania. Conducted geography workshop during the past fall.

Eugene Van Cleef (Ph.D., '28) Professor Emeritus, Ohio State University, (2548 Cannon Dr., Columbus 21, Ohio). Completed revision of Global Geography for High Schools and edited paperback, Principles of Geography. Elected Honorary Life Member, American Society of Planning Officials.

Wouter van de Bunt (1952-53), Manager, Long-range Planning, Capital Airlines (2317 Executive Ave., Fall Church, Virginia). Emigrated from the Netherlands in May, 1959 to start a "new" life in the U.S.A. A second child (girl) was born in March, 1959.

W. Van Royen (Ph.D.,'28) Professor and Head, Department of Geography, University of Maryland, College Park, ("The Old Manse," Church Rd., Ellicott City, Maryland). Worked last summer on U.S. Department of Commerce extensive study of the future development of the San Francisco Bay Area. Travelled extensively as member of A.A.A. Panel of the Secretary of the Army.

H. B. Van Tuyll Jr. (1951-55) 332 South Stafford St., Arlington 6, Virginia.

Mrs. Lillian H. Wallace (M.A. '41) Associate Professor of Geography, Westfield State Teachers College (61 Western Ave., Westfield, Mass.). Last summer toured South America.

Niles W. Weaver (M.A. '51) Director, Slum Clearance and Redevelopment Authority, Portland (320 Capisic St., Portland, Me.).

Seymour I. West (M.A. '41) 105 Martha's Road, Alex, Virginia.

Katherine Thomas Whittemore (M.A. '25, Ph.D. '36) Professor and Director, Division of Arts and Sciences State University College for Teachers, Buffalo 22, New York. Article published in New York Times, August 16, "New Look at Welland Canal."

Bernt Lloyd Wills (42-43) Chairman, Department of Geography, University of North Dakota.

Marion L. Wright (M.A. '46) Chairman, Division of Social Sciences, Rhode Island College of Education, Providence (Box 372, Route 3, North Smithfield, Rhode Island). During summer last year, 8,500 miles of Europe were traversed in a Volkswagen Camper.

Kaniz Fatima Yusuf (Ph. D. '59) Lecturer in Geography (56 L. Gulburg, Lahore, West Pakistan). Traveled in northeast West Pakistan.

Leo J. Zuber (46-49) Community Planner, Urban Renewal Administration, Atlanta (2704 North Decatur Road, Decatur, Georgia). Administratively responsible for the Urban Planning Assistance Program in the eight southeastern states.

MISSING NAMES

The Monadnock would like to thank those who have helped us locate missing members listed in the December edition. Here are a few more for your inspection.

Vincent DiRenzo
Francis B. Elliot
Alexander Gassaway
George W. Hartman
Mohamed F. A. Hebraul
Colbert G. Hold
F. Mildred (Corea)
Kohonan-Wickrema
L. C. Krebs
James J. Lee
Emanuel Malo
Wallace Edward McIntyre
William B. Cody
Daniel Pawlikowski
Paul Prince
Lewis Reinwald
S. A. S. Anthony

SUMMER SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

During the intersession (June 6 to June 25) Dr. Warman will present an introductory course in weather and climate.

Single and double courses in Introductory and advanced cartography will be taught by Mr. Burnham in the summer session (June 27 to August 12).

We regret to announce the death of Herb W.Morey on August 5, 1959. He studied in the School in 1940.
The first guest lecturer of the 1959–60 academic year was Professor George B. Cressy (Ph.D., '31) of Syracuse University who visited the School for several days in early December. Three well illustrated lectures were offered, "How Strong is Russia?," "China's Prospects—People, Land and Resources," and "Land and Life in Southwest Asia."

Unfortunately, the visitors following Dr. Cressy could not stay with us longer than an afternoon, but their contributions were appreciated by the staff and students. Dr. Franklin G. Erickson (Ph.D., '35), recently promoted to Associate Dean of the College of Liberal Arts at Boston University, provided an interesting permafrost and resultant geomorphic features in the Alaska coastal plain. The third lecturer, Dr. Wallace W. Atwood, Jr. (Ph.D., '30), Director of the Office of International Relations, National Academy of Science, discussed the function and workings of this organization and the role of the geographer as a co-ordinator. Professor George F. Carter of John Hopkins University presented an illustrated lecture of his work tracing cultural diffusion through linguistic analysis, especially pictographic study. Congratulations are in order to the ladies of the Workroom for tea-time delicacies.

Stephen O. Wilson (Dartmouth, B.A., 1959) is new to The Monadnock but already an old hand of the Workroom. Steve has a well developed interest in polar lands and has spent some time in Antarctica as a naval officer. His immediate interests are continued study of this little-known area.

Abdul Wahab Al Dabbagh (Cairo University, B.A., 1945, Birmingham University, England, M.A., 1949) has come to us from a professorship at the College of Education, Baghdad University, Iraq. In his Ph.D. residence year, Abdul's interests are political, economic and cultural geography.

Lehman L., Henry (University of Hawaii, B.A., 1952, M.A., 1957) joined the Workroom gang in February. His major geographic interests are the Pacific Basin area, Western Europe and the production of geographic films. After Clark, "Bud" hopes to be a geographer for the government.

Harley E. Scott (University of Buffalo, B.A., 1960) comes from Lancaster, New York and has begun his M.A. residence. On graduation, Scotty would like a civil service job where he could study the economic geography of the U.S.S.R.