MSM Learning Goals
04/20/2016

1. Critical Thinking: Our graduates will have the ability to think critically about problems and solutions in business.
   1.1: Ability to recognize and define issues and problems.
   1.2: Ability to identify and select an approach and/or analysis tool(s) appropriate for the situation.
   1.3: Ability to apply the approach and/or analysis tool(s) effectively for the situation.
   1.4: Ability to reach a decision/conclusion that follows logically from the approach and/or analysis.

2. Global Perspective: Our graduates will have a global perspective.
   2.1: Ability to identify the differences in political, economic, regulatory, and/or cultural environment of different countries.
   2.2: Ability to understand how differences in political, economic, regulatory, and/or cultural environment impact international business.

3. Ethical Perspective: Our graduates will understand the importance of behaving ethically in their professional lives (e.g., have an ethical perspective).
   3.1: Ability to identify the activities/issues that may present ethical challenges.
   3.2: Ability to articulate the consequences associated with unethical behavior.
   3.3: Ability to understand the needs for companies and organizations to act in socially and environmentally responsible way.

4. Communications: Our graduates will be effective communicators.
   4.1: Ability to produce professional quality written documents.
   4.2: Ability to deliver a professional quality presentation accompanied by appropriate information technology or other supporting materials.

5. Team Effectiveness: our graduates will be effective in a team setting.
   5.1: Ability to develop a plan with a clear set of goals and shared responsibilities.
   5.2: Effective in managing timelines for teamwork.
   5.3: Successful in meeting individuals’ responsibilities.

6. Human Resources: our graduates will demonstrate a practical understanding of HRM.
   6.1 Ability to understand roles and responsibilities of HR as a management function.
   6.2 Ability to describe the role of HRM in organizational change efforts.
   6.3 Ability to demonstrate an understanding of diversity issues related to HRM on a local and global level.