Bull Mansion

Title of Project: Grant Writing

Main Contact: Adi Tibrewal, (See Clark Recruiter for full contact info)

Duration: Minimum of 180 hours.

Deadline: April 1, 2017

Location: 55 Pearl St., Worcester, MA (Student would be working both at Bull Mansion and from remote location)

Position Description:

- Researching and Writing a grant for a historical property
- Research of all local, state, and country-wide grants that might apply to Bull Mansion.
- Familiarize with our programs, goals and needs
- Develop Proposals

Qualifications:

- Excellent grammar and strong research skills needed
- Strong organizational skills
- Ability to complete before deadlines.

Housing: Housing will not be provided. Students are responsible for finding their own housing in Worcester.

For more info: Please, visit: http://bullmansion.com/

Funding: $2500 Available through the LEEP Fellows Program.

How to Apply: Send resume and cover letter to Bullmansion@gmail.com

To apply for LEEP Funding and to be considered as a LEEP fellow, students must secure the position and complete the LEEP Fellows Application Process by March 3rd (for early decision) or April 14th. Students will be required to submit a resume, cover letter, and a proposal outlining how they will complete their project.

Additional position information is available through Clark Recruiter. (Recommendation letters should be emailed directly to rmaddox@clarku.edu)

About the Organization:
Bull Mansion is Worcester's newest restaurant and event space, touting a new american bistro, a full bar, and several event spaces upstairs including a ball room and several private dining and meeting rooms. Bull Mansion was built in 1876, it was designed by Calvert Vaux who was contracted by Daniel Wesson (of Smith and Wesson) for his daughter Sarah’s wedding present. Bull Mansion is also known as G.A.R Hall (Grand Army of Republic Hall). It is an ornate Victorian Gothic/Stick style granite mansion, which is on US National Register of Historic Places.