

CLARK UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE AND HOUSING
UNDERGRADUATE HOUSING CONTRACT
2008 - 2009

This contract is a financially binding commitment to a space in university housing for the entire 2008-2009 academic year.

The University, as an academic community, intends to provide a residential atmosphere where study and learning can take place along with recreation, relaxation and social development. This atmosphere is dependent upon the willingness of all individuals to associate in such a way that personal freedom and responsibility co-exist. The undersigned student, therefore, acknowledges the need for socially responsible behavior, recognizes the role of the Residential Life and Housing (RLH) staff in promoting such behavior, and accepts reasonable disciplinary action for disregarding such behavior. The student agrees to abide by all the rules and regulations pertaining to Clark housing as outlined in Synergy. (_____ please initial here that you have read this section)

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

- Students are required to live on campus for four semesters.
- Students who withdraw or take a leave of absence from the University, then subsequently reverse their decision, remain bound to the conditions of the Housing Contract.
- If a student is required to vacate his/her assigned room due to disciplinary sanctions or as a result of breach of this contract, room charges for the academic year will not be refunded.
- Prior to moving onto campus a student's financial obligations to the University must be satisfied. In addition, if financial obligations to be met are delinquent, the University maintains the right to remove the student from his/her assignment.
- Seniors on leave in COPACE, with fewer than 2 credit hours until completion, may petition to remain in housing.
- The contract may only be cancelled under the following conditions: (1) completion of degree requirements at mid-year, (2) withdrawal from the University (3) attending a Clark University approved "study abroad" program, (4) taking an official "Leave of Absence" from the University (including a leave to COPACE), (5) applying for and granted a contract appeal.
- Returning male and female residents who elect to do so may share the same room assignment. Male and female students will not be paired together by the RLH Office. First year and transfer students are not permitted to live with members of the opposite gender.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. The occupancy period will begin at 9:00AM on August 31, 2008 for returning students and at 9:00AM on August 27, 2008 for new students. The residence halls/houses will close at Noon on December 20, 2008 for Winter Break. The halls open for the Spring 2009 semester at 9:00AM on Sunday, January 11, 2009. The halls close at Noon on May 6, 2009. Graduating seniors are allowed to remain in residence until 12 noon on the day following Commencement. University housing remains open during October, Thanksgiving and March break periods. Clark housing is CLOSED during the winter and summer break periods*. All students are required to vacate during closed periods unless given permission by the RLH Office (Office of Residential Life and Housing) to remain in residence. *Blackstone Hall (for all residents) and the Year Round House (for residents requesting housing) are open during winter break. Students requiring accommodations over winter break should select one of these rooms during lottery.
2. Students who withdraw or take a leave of absence prior to the first day of classes in the fall or spring semester (provided they have vacated their room and have turned in room keys) will not be charged the room costs for that semester. Should a student's possessions occupy a room after they officially withdrawal, their bills will be pro-rated to reflect the occupancy of the housing assignment. A room will be considered "occupied" while a student is in possession of their assigned room key.
3. Students who do not occupy their assigned rooms by the first day of class and have not notified the RLH Office prior to that day of their intended late arrival may be reassigned to a different space at the discretion of the RLH Office. Subletting of your room/lending out your room key to another student is not allowed. The University may also assign a new roommate at any time during the academic year when a room has a vacant space.
4. There is a Room Freeze during the first and last two weeks of each semester; otherwise room changes can occur at anytime during the semester with the approval of the RLH Office. First year students are expected to complete a Roommate Agreement. All other students are highly encouraged to complete a Roommate Agreement. Residents participating in unauthorized moves will be required to return to their original assignments may be fined $75.00 and may face disciplinary action.
5. The RLH Office reserves the right to change a housing assignment or remove a student from University housing if continued residency is determined to be detrimental to any part of the University or Worcester community. The RLH Office reserves the right to require residents without roommates to relocate in order to consolidate space. Failure to adhere to the consolidation assignment may result in disciplinary action.
6. All residents are responsible for verifying their condition of the room. They are required to sign a Room Condition Card upon entering their room any time they move to a different University room, when moving out of a room, and/or when leaving at the end of the academic year. Residents will be responsible for the total repair costs, as determined by the University, as a result of any damage occurring during their period of occupancy (ordinary wear and tear excepted). Residents are also responsible for damages in common areas, including but not limited to suites, kitchens and hallways. Students' responsibilities related to their room and common areas are outlined on the reverse side of the Room Condition Card. Students will be billed for all keys not returned after checking-out. All students must check-out with an RA prior to leaving Clark housing. Failure to do so will result in a $75.00 illegal check-out fee.
7. University staff reserves the right to enter and inspect rooms in order to verify compliance with health and safety standards, to investigate probable violations of the Code of Student Conduct, to inventory furnishings, and/or to make necessary repairs to rooms and furnishings.
8. The University and the RLH Office are not in any way liable for the loss of, theft of, or damage to any property belonging to residents. Students are advised to purchase a personal insurance policy if belongings are not covered under family insurance (i.e. renter's insurance).
9. The University and the RLH Office disclaim any liability for failure to perform any of their contractual obligations resulting from, but not limited to: any governmental order or regulation; an act of God; an act of war; a riot; or any other cause beyond their control.
10. Students are not permitted to install satellite dishes, or any other equipment/personal items on the outside of any residence hall/house.

This contract shall be governed, construed, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. This contract, and any rider attached hereto, constitutes the complete and final contract between the student and the University for a Space in University housing. I have read and agree to abide by the terms, conditions and regulations of the Clark University Residential Life and Housing Agreement.

(Please print full name)

Student's / Parent or Legal Guardian signature (required if under 18 years of age)

Clark ID Number

Date

white copy: RLH; yellow copy: student

1/06