This is a page from a magazine featuring articles on various topics. It includes an executive editor's note, a section on class notes, and an editorial about alumni and friends. The text is not fully legible due to the nature of the image, but it seems to cover topics related to alumni, class notes, and alumni affairs. The layout includes headings and subheadings, indicating sections on events, achievements, and various communications. The page number 48 is visible, suggesting it is part of a larger issue dedicated to alumni and alumni affairs. The content appears to be a mix of text and images, typical of a publication aimed at alumni and friends of the university.
