

Ancient Civilization

Clark's Ancient Civilization major consists principally of courses in art history, classics, Jewish studies and philosophy. This interdisciplinary program covers the entire spectrum of ancient Mediterranean culture including Greek, Hebrew and Latin languages.

Related Careers:

Museums/Archives, Historical Societies	Curator, Conservation / Preservation, Collections Manager, Research
Research firms	Research, Public Policy Analysis, Archaeology Fieldwork
Education	Secondary and University Education
Government	Policy Analysis, Foreign Relations, Immigration, Translation
Non-profit organizations	Public Health, Social Policy Research

Where do Clark Ancient Civilization majors intern?

- Intern, Clark Lab, Worcester, MA
- Participant in archaeological dig, Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- Research Assistant for Clark Professor, Antioch ad Cragum Temple Restoration Project, Turkey
- Intern, Office of Sen. Kerry
- Teacher, Solomon Schechter Day School

Where do Clark Ancient Civilization majors attend graduate school?

- J.D., College of William & Mary
- M.A., History, UCLA
- M.D., Mount Sinai School of Medicine, NYU
- M.A., Development Management & Policy, Georgetown University
- J.D., George Mason Univ. School of Law
- Tufts University
- Brandeis University

What do Clark Ancient Civilization majors do?

- Internal Marketing Specialist, Smith Companies Ltd. Insurance
- Director of Development and Marketing, Frazer Insurance Agency, Inc.
- Attorney, Shipman and Goodwin, LLP
- Research and Library Science Specialist, University of Pittsburgh
- Curator, Fitchburg Art Museum
- English Teacher, Nova Group

Links for Further Research:

New England Museum Association	http://www.nemanet.org/
American Association of Museums	http://www.aam-us.org/
Museum Employment Center	http://www.museum-employment.com/
Hire Culture	https://www.hireculture.org/
American Public Health Association	http://www.apha.org/
Massachusetts Public Health Association	http://www.mphaweb.org/
Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management	http://www.appam.org/
New England Board of Education Directory of Public Policy Research Centers & Institutes	http://www.nebhe.org/pubpol.html
American Anthropological Association	http://www.aaanet.org/
Society for Applied Anthropology	http://www.sfaa.net/