

History

The history department includes coursework on every major geographical area of the world and conceptual approaches ranging from political and diplomatic to social, intellectual and cultural. Students choose one of three areas of geographic specialization: United States, European or global history, which may be linked to coursework in concentrations such as Asian Studies, Holocaust Studies or Women's Studies. There is also a general track leading to education certification in conjunction with the Education Department.

Related Careers:

Government	Intelligence, Foreign Service, Politics, Museums, Park Services
Museums, Archives, Historical Societies	Curator, Archivist, Librarian, Educator
Law	Attorney, Paralegal, Political Consulting
Education	Elementary, Secondary, University Teaching
Print media (newspapers, magazines, journals)	Writing, Editing, Research, Publishing
Business	Consulting, International Affairs
Think tank	Research

Where do Clark History majors intern?

- Community Service/Marketing Intern, Worcester Sharks, Worcester, MA
- Intern, Cakes by Erin, Haverhill, MA
- Foreign Policy Intern, United States Department of State, Office of Consular Affairs, Washington, D.C.
- Development Intern, City of Worcester, Economic Development Division, Worcester, MA
- Education Intern, Naval Historical Institute, Washington, D.C.
- Finance Intern, Smith-Barney, Worcester, MA

Where do Clark History majors attend graduate school?

- J.D., Vermont Law School
- M.A., Public History, SUNY Albany
- M.A., History, American University
- Master's in Elementary Education, Lesley University
- M.Ed., Boston University
- J.D. University of Connecticut Law School
- M.B.A., Bentley University
- M.S., Biostatistics, UMass Amherst
- M.A., Early American History, Boston College
- M.A.T., Clark University, 5th year

What do Clark History majors do?

- Education Reporter, The Citizen newspaper
- Police Officer, Arlington County Police Department
- Senior Admissions Counselor, Community College
- Chief Economic Historian, U.S. Census Bureau
- Director, Anti-Defamation League of New England
- Co-founder & President, Rounder Records
- GIS Analyst, Smithsonian Museum of Natural History

Links for Further Research:

American Historical Association	http://www.historians.org/
American Association for State and Local History	http://www.aaslh.org/
Centers for Research & Policy Development	http://www.hks.harvard.edu/library/research/guides/think-tanks-directory.htm
Foundation Center	http://foundationcenter.org/
Association for Documentary Editing	http://www.documentaryediting.org/
National Association for Ethnic Studies	http://ethnicstudies.org/
National Genealogical Society	http://www.ngsgenealogy.org/
Medieval Academy of America	http://www.medievalacademy.org/
Organization of American Historians	http://www.oah.org/
World History Association	http://www.thewha.org/